Study IT with Albert Zhu / Welcome

Hello World!

I am Albert Zhu. ??? in Chinese. I am a software programmer living in China, an ACM and IEEE member, a volunteer of IEEE - the Chair of GOLD in Nanjing Section. You can visit my blog here (Basically in Chinese), my Facebook, and follow my Twitter to know me.

As a professional in the realm of IT, life learning is necessary. So I'd like to keep study IT. I will store useful information as much I can in this site while I learn from other sites, books, colleagues, mentors, and you of course. If you will join me in studyit.info, I'll feel so glad and honored. Wish studyit.info can help you in your practice.

If you have any question, or just say hi to me, email me in this web page.

BTW, English is my second language, if there is any language or technical error, please correct me. Thank you very much.
